This manwha is published in Germany, more than a dozen volumes ahead of this scanlation. If you are living in Germany, I recommend you check out your local book and comic stores for it. But note that we do translate this manwha from the original Korean volumes.
Also note that the cover says "Kumiho", and not "Gumiho", since South Korea changed their romanization system around 2000. Hence what was "Kumiho", became "Gumiho".
